Accommodation

The Property

The property is accessed via the private front garden, leading to the front door and additionally offering access to the rear garden. There is a small internal hallway that leads on to the inviting dual aspect lounge, with charming period features including exposed beams, inset shelves, bay window and log burner. A second reception room features exposed beams and cast-iron fireplace and the cottage style kitchen has space for a table, with matching floor and wall units, electric oven and gas hob with incorporated stainless steel extractor fan. There is a bright conservatory with French doors opening on to the pretty rear garden.

Stairs from the kitchen lead up to the first floor. The master bedroom, with en-suite housing a shower, and second double bedroom, are located on this floor, along with the family bathroom with bath, vanity sink unit and separate WC.

The second floor is accessed via stairs from the first floor landing. The third bedroom and a study/possible bedroom are located on this floor, each with exposed beams and roof trusses.

Externally

Externally, the property has the added benefit of a private front garden with stone and hedge boundaries and mature planting, setting the property back from the road, as well as an attractive cottage garden to the rear.

Parking

There is off street parking with the property offered for a peppercorn fee of £1 paid annually to the village church.

Tenure

The property is believed to be offered freehold with vacant possession on completion.
