Situation and Amenities

The popular market town of Leyburn sits on the edge of the Yorkshire Dales National Park, with an abundance of recreational activities and walks on the doorstep. There is a wide variety of both independent and national shops, as well as a Co-Operative supermarket, various pubs and eateries and the infamous Tennants Sale Room.

There is an active community with several sports clubs, as well as primary and secondary schools and a weekly Farmers' Market.

Leyburn is well located with good access to the A1 (M) approximately 25 minutes' drive away and a mainline railway station at Northallerton for commuting across the region.

Accommodation

The front door leads into an entrance hall, which has stone-flagged flooring, a window to the side, a spindle staircase to the first floor and doors leading to the living accommodation and the cellar.

The dual aspect dining kitchen has a good range of oak units from Simply Dutch, a Belfast sink, Range-style cooker, an integrated dishwasher, alcoves and ample space for a dining table. The separate dining room/family room has a wood-burning stove, oak beam and bay window.

The sitting room has a bay window and a wood-burning stove with wooden surround and slate hearth.

The period-style staircase leads up the first floor landing, where there are doors to the principal bedroom, two further bedrooms and the house bathroom, which benefits from a cast-iron bath, walk-in shower, w.c and double vanity basins.

Further stairs from here lead up to the second floor landing, which leads to two further double bedrooms, one of which has a log-burning stove with cast-iron surround, whilst the other has a window to the front showcasing the far-reaching views. There is an additional bathroom to the second floor, which has a panelled bath with shower above, w.c and basin with eaves storage.

Externally

The property is approached by a shared drive to the side leading to the rear garden, parking and double garage. The front garden has fenced and stone-walled boundaries and is mainly laid to lawn with a pathway and steps leading up to the front door. There is also a useful log store.

The rear garden is accessed over a shared rear lane and is mainly laid to lawn with fenced boundaries, a summerhouse and a variety of mature shrubs and plants.

There is parking for several cars as well as a double garage.
