Owners Insight

The situation of Ivy Cottage is truly idyllic, tucked away off the green overlooking the River Bain in the wonderful village of Bainbridge, within close proximity of the market town of Hawes. The cottage offers gorgeous views of the river, plenty of parking and a garden room we adore, from where we can see and hear the river and enjoy all the bird life.

Winter nights are a real treat at Ivy Cottage, snuggled around the log burning stove set within a traditional range in the sitting room. We love the village for its sense of community and the amenities it has to offer such as the tea room, village shop, garage, pub, weekly fish and chip van and excellent walks.
