Description

The Old Chapel is a super home which will appeal to a variety of purchasers. Converted a number of years ago to create a four bedroom dwelling, the property would now benefit from cosmetic updating to realise its full potential. Offering flexible accommodation, the home retains many original features such as the stone mullioned arched windows and the exposed beams in the fantastic upper floor living accommodation. Currently offering four bedrooms the property briefly comprises:

Lower ground floor: Utility room with storage off, wc, study with door providing easy access to the garden.

Ground floor: Principal bedroom with ensuite bathroom, single bedroom, family bathroom, double bedroom with built-in wardrobes and a further double bedroom with built-in wardrobes and ensuite shower.

Upper floor: stunning, open-plan living-dining-kitchen encompassing the original beams and light filled from the clever use of velux windows.

Situation and Amenities

The property sits on the edge of the highly sought-after village of Boltby. The village is on the edge of the North York Moors National Park and approximately five miles to the north east of the market town of Thirsk. Benefiting from peaceful, rural surroundings the property is also conveniently close to the A19 which provides direct access to the nearby market towns of Thirsk and Northallerton, also linking to the A1(M) which leads to Harrogate and Leeds to the south. The area is home to some excellent public houses and restaurants and there are several noteworthy schools within easy reach including Ripon Grammar, Queen Mary's, Ampleforth College and Yarm.

Externally

The property has a driveway providing off-street parking for a number of vehicles. There is a detached double garage and store. Steps and paths meander around the property and there are lawned gardens and patio areas.
