Description

6 Anchor Terrace will appeal to both first time buyers and investors. Presented to a high standard throughout, the property has retained many original features such as the cast iron fireplaces in the bedrooms and the Yorkshire range in the kitchen with many exposed beams throughout. These features have been combined with the modern additions when renovated and the home has a lovely homely feel. With stunning river views and an enclosed courtyard to the rear the property briefly comprises:

Covered canopy porch leads to the panelled entrance door to the sitting room with feature fire surround, stairs off and doorway to the dining kitchen. The kitchen is a fabulous space for entertaining as it easily accommodates a large dining table. There is a range of modern wall and floor mounted units and to one side is the fabulous cast iron range. An exposed beamed ceiling further enhances this room and a double-glazed door leads to the rear courtyard. To the first floor are two pretty double bedrooms with cast iron fireplaces and the refurbished house bathroom. The property has double glazing and central heating together with a boarded loft room with roof light.

Outside

To the front of the property is an area providing off-street parking for one vehicle. The rear yard is enclosed and paved and there is a brick built store accessed via the neighbouring property. There is a pedestrian access over the adjacent properties giving access to the end of the terrace.

Situation and Amenities

Anchor Terrace is a short walk from the centre of Boroughbridge. As such it benefits from being on the doorstep of the wide and varied amenities found in the town. These include a range of independent high street shops, cafes, restaurants and public houses, leisure and hotel facilities, primary and secondary schooling. The town is easily accessible being situated just off Junction 49 of the A1 motorway and the station at Thirsk (20 mins drive) gives access to the east coast mainline and London Kings Cross.

The appeal of our home- The owners Insight

A cosy much loved home that our daughter lived in. We love the gorgeous Victorian features such as the original fireplaces in the bedrooms, Yorkshire range in the huge kitchen and the characterful beams. We have stunning views of the river and the cottage is situated on a quiet private lane. We are lucky to have super neighbours of many years and importantly we are only a 5 minute walk to Boroughbridge centre.
