Briefly comprising to the ground floor, entrance vestibule leading to sitting room with feature stone fire surround and wood burning stove. Inner Hall with stairs to first floor and cloakroom/w.c. Dining room with inglenook fire place and window to front. Excellent breakfast kitchen with extensive range of modern wall and floor mounted units and large window to the rear elevation. Situation and Amenities

The property is positioned on the outer edge of the picturesque village of Laverton which lies 6 miles from the Cathedral City of Ripon which has a wide array of amenities including the highly sought after Ripon Grammar School. The village benefits from being within the catchment area for the school and as such will no doubt be popular with those families wanting their children to attend. The Village of Kirby Malzeard is a short distance away and has a large amount of amenities including Primary School, Butchers, Village Shop, Public House, Fish and Chip Shop, Doctors surgery and Playing fields.

Outside

The outside is a particular feature of Hope House. Accessed off a driveway to the side of the terrace, a private gravelled driveway offers parking for several vehicles. There is an elevated enclosed courtyard garden and further lawned garden along with numerous outbuildings and storage. In addition to the garden space is the fantastic paddock. Perfect for a small pony or number of sheep, the field could also be used as a football or rugby pitch for children to play.
